Resort Summary	Mesa Verde National Park, located in southwestern Colorado, is best known for cliff dwellings, which are structures built within caves and under outcropping in cliffs, built by the Ancestral Pueblo people who lived here for over 700 years. These sites are some of the most notable and best preserved in the United States. Encounter first-hand Mesa Verde's unspoiled beauty. Hike amid native oaks and wild flowers in spectacular wooded canyons populated with deer, elk and wild turkeys. This beautiful setting is everything you'll need for an exciting and memorable season.
